The island is a rich and diverse mix of cultures with a cosmopolitan population; influenced mainly by its British and French ties and massive Indian workforce, which is reflected in both the architecture and the food with its wide range of Indian, Chinese, Creole and European dishes in its cuisine.

We offer a selection of hotels and resorts where the service is genuinely friendly. Mauritius is more than just a honeymoon and beach destination and the resorts offer a wide range of sports activities including tennis, golf and water sports. With palm beaches, clear blue waters and coral reefs that makes it marvelous for snorkeling together with dramatic landscapes; the island also offers plenty of attractions for those who wish to do inland activities.
